Target Market Determination

Effective Date: 15 March 2024
Version: NIBDOMTMD022024

1. About this document

This Target Market Determination (TMD) applies to the product(s) set out in Section 6 and identifies who this travel insurance is designed for. Customers can use this TMD to decide if this insurance product meets their objectives, financial situation and needs. It also outlines the conditions of distribution of this insurance.

The benefits and cover offered by this insurance product depend on the plan and options selected. Information contained in this TMD does not constitute personal advice. Customers must assess the cover offered to determine if it is suitable for their circumstances.

2. Target Market for this insurance

Australian Travel Plan

The nib Domestic Travel Insurance Australian Travel Plan has been designed to provide our broadest domestic single trip cover and highest benefit limits, meaning when compared to the nib Domestic Travel Insurance Cancellation and Additional Expenses Plan, travellers can expect greater protection against potential financial loss incurred before or during travel.

General advice may only be provided by a representative acting on our behalf where they are appropriately qualified and expressly authorised by us to do so.

All marketing and advertising related to the product(s) described in this TMD must adhere to any guidelines provided by us, and not be directed towards customers who are outside of the target market set out in Section 2.

3.3 Impact of distribution conditions and restrictions

The distribution channels and conditions described in Section 3.1 and 3.2 are designed to ensure this insurance is directed towards the target market, meaning it is likely that consumers who purchase this insurance are in the target market set out in Section 2. We will monitor compliance with the distribution channels and conditions described in Section 3.1 and 3.2 in accordance with our Monitoring and Supervision Policy.

4. Record keeping and reporting information

Information reported to us is used to help us determine if this TMD is no longer appropriate.

Reporting Periods

Our distribution partners must keep a record of and notify us in writing within 24 hours of becoming aware of the following:

- details of any complaints regarding the insurance;
- distribution of the insurance outside of their active agreement with us;
- any dealings not consistent with this TMD such as if this insurance is issued to a traveller who is not eligible for cover.

The number and nature of complaints will be reviewed on a quarterly basis to analyse whether this product, including how it is distributed, continues to meet the objectives, financial situation and needs of the target market.

5. Reviewing Target Market Determinations

We will conduct an initial review of this TMD within 24 months after it has been published. Subsequent reviews are to be conducted every 24 months after the initial review has been completed.

Outside of the specified review period, other circumstances which may trigger a review of this TMD include:

- if the objectives of the target market change such that the key attributes no longer meet the target market's needs; or

- significant dealings outside of:
 1. the target market as specified in Section 2;
 2. the distribution conditions as specified in Section 3; or
- if we become aware that the distribution conditions are inadequate; or
- there is a significant change in product performance; or
- the value changes significantly to the detriment of consumers; or
- significant increases in complaints and severity of claims; or
- changes to the nature of claims or complaints, or based on other identified claim and complaint trends; or
- updates to the Product Disclosure Statement, our risk appetite or relevant legislation; or
- feedback from regulators, distribution partners or customers suggests this TMD requires amendment or is not fit for purpose; or
- significant changes in a distribution partner's business structure or client base.

If one of the above events reasonably suggests to us that the TMD is no longer appropriate, we will review this TMD within 10 business days.
